

The Victor Hugo In Guernsey Society invites you to its annual weekend conference at the end of June 2024.

This event has become notable in that it attracts Hugo experts from France, the UK and the USA to make illustrated presentations on how Victor Hugo spoke and wrote about the many themes set for each weekend. Past years have considered Notre Dame, Hugo the campaigner, Childhood, Hugo in Exile, and his works: Toilers of the Sea and Les Miserables.

The 2024 Programme:

Thursday 27th June,

Tours of St. Peter Port and Guernsey can be arranged.

Friday 28th

Early evening Vin d'Honneur followed by an Introductory presentation (at the supper table) and the Celebration Supper

Saturday 29th

Seminar Registration followed by illustrated presentations on Victor Hugo & The Ocean.

There will be coffee/Tea breaks and a light buffet lunch.

The afternoon will conclude with a "Question time" when the speakers answer delegate questions.

In the evening there will be a dinner and entertainment.

Sunday 30th

During the morning there will be English and French tours of Hauteville House

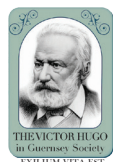

Delegates departures for some

Full details and booking options on www.victorhugoinguernsey.gg from 1st April.

Here are the ways to travel to Guernsey for the Weekend:

By air, Aurigny. Daily from UK airports and 27th or 28th June from Charles de Gaulle, Paris at 13.40,

By sea. Condor Ferries. Daily from Poole and Portsmouth. 28th June, depart Cherbourg at 14.50.

The Victor Hugo In Guernsey Society

Celebrating the life and works of Victor Hugo and his family during the years of exile in Guernsey.